Peace?
What exactly are you talking about, friend?
Daydream and TRY to escape life's inevitable realities.
Parties, booze, drunks,
stoned . . . freaked out!!
THEN . . . the mind and soul get it together! Relaxed and Oh!! So free!!
At least you think you are . . .

22

So what if I pass the course? Who wants an eight o'clock class? Yet those agonies and baggy eyes are temporarily soothed by decent grades . . . but there has got to be a better way . . . hasn't there?

Brotherhood—get along with your fellow man and remember—we all have to live together.

STOP

It's hard to enjoy living with reminders–
Vietnam
Northern Ireland
China
Kent State Equality U.S.A.

Search and question, people!
We have to criticize and judge ourselves and each other. We just can't exist as mere machines forever bowing to injustices!!

ΚΣ

We are sometimes eased momentarily by a grasping of Love.
We can get by with a little help from our friends.

But it doesn't last forever and if we are to become individuals– we must seek the TRUTH–to find the PEACE–to live with OURSELVES.

FOR WHOM

No photograph of Ernest Gust could ever capture his humanness and no amount of words tell his story, but for a dedication, an attempt is made. Those who have seen him smile, faced his frown, those who have shuddered when he pounded his lecturn, while he bellowed at his semi-circle of listeners, will hold within them the only true, if still incomplete, portrait. For those who hadn't the opportunity: he is an angry man, with an anger ever-present in its attempt at destroying our Apathy, our Stupidity, our Cowardice, and he is very angry because one man can do very little against such institutions. And he is a great-hearted man, for he knows he has those faults, but because he works to end them, because he tries, we know there is more and we try. Perhaps only those minds he has shaken will understand, having known such a man, that they percieve with clearer eyes what exists around them.

It is this last quality, self-examination, which is the most important lesson learned, the most important question asked in Mr. Gust's history classes: What do you, an individual, thinking human being, believe in and why? Be specific. Discuss fully.

"Life is, in fact, a battle," and putting together the 1972 QUADRANGLE that you students could be proud of was quite a battle—and a challenge. The challenge was difficult, but one we had to accept. I think the hours of work paid off.

The staff deserves a round of applause because they answered the call of duty every time that the bugle was blown. I couldn't have made it without them.

Ana Moldenhaur and Denise Wilmot were exceptional help in the organizations section getting all the groups together. Mission Possible!

Bonnie Funderburk did quite a job with the ad section, and I think her time and effort was well worth it.

Sharon Berry, and Susan Bolyn have been assets to the staff. I would like to thank John Schellack for the superb photography that has made this book. Other members faithfully sold ads, watched those infernal ballot boxes, and boosted my moral. Art Williams, our representative from Paragon Press, was always here when we needed him.

Appreciation goes to everyone at LaGrange College . . . Without you there would be no yearbook, no memories. It's been a long year, but I have a special peace of mind because my job is finished. The 1972 QUADRANGLE is now yours.
